DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the New York World.

HAVE THE SOUTHERN NEGROES A "VESTED RIGHT" IN THE SUFFRAGE?

The leading Republican journals, aware of the slender original foundation on which they rest negro suffrage in the South, are preparing to shift their ground, and to defend it as a vested right. They say it is no longer a question whether the elective franchise shall be conferred on the Southern negroes, but whether they shall be permitted to retain it. The negroes are already voters, as they are already freemen, and being once clothed with a privilege, it is contended that they can no more be disfranchised than they can be remanded to servitude. This argument is well contrived for covering up the flaw in the original title. It is like pleading length of possession as title to a piece of land, when the deed of conveyance will not bear a lawyer's scrutiny. But despite this plausible dodge, the suffrage of the negroes must ultimately be determined by the rightfulness of the authority by which it was conferred.

It is sophistry to confound the retention of the elective franchise with the retention by the negroes of their freedom. Freedom is an original, inalienable, indefeasible right, inhering in manhood, derived from no covenant, compact, or legislation whatsoever. But the right of suffrage stands on an entirely different footing. It is purely a thing of convention or of law. A man's freedom is his birthright; it travels with him wherever he goes; it is no less his right in France, in Austria, in Russia, than on the soil of this republic. But participation in the goverment is quite a different thing, as is proved by the fact that while slavery is abolished throughout the greater part of Christendom, there are but two or three countries where the people have any real participation in the government. Even in England, which is governed by an elected parliament, the majority of the adult males will not vote even under the new Reform bill, though it has long been true, as Cowper sung, that "slaves cannot breathe in England." Aliens are as free in this country as our own citizens, though they are not voters. Their freedom is from God, and we may not touch it; but no sound thinker ever supposed that we wrong them in withholding the elective franchise.

The Southern negroes would be cruelly wronged in remanding them to slavery, because they were always wronged in subjecting them to slavery. But nobody is wronged by excision from the suffrage, unless previous possession has made it a vested right. It is, indeed, a dexterous dodge on the part of the Republicans to attempt to put it in that light, and thus stifle inquiry into its original legitimacy. But it is absurd to set up prescription in favor of a practice absolutely new, and a pretended right which has never been out of dispute. The newness of the franchise would indeed be no bar to its irrepealability, if it had been granted by competent authority. If Ohio had decided, in the late election, to admit negroes to the suffrage, their subsequent exclusion would be impossible; but why? Simply because the people of Ohio had jurisdiction of the question, and were competent, by an amendment to their Constitution, to bind the State by a valid engagement. Such a covenant would have been irrepealable, as binding the faith of the State. But let us suppose a different case. If the last Legislature of New York had passed a law requiring the proper officers to register all adult negroes, and inspectors of elections to receive their votes; and if under such a law the negroes of this State should vote in the November election, no man fit to be outside an insane asylum would contend that they had thereby acquired an indefeasible right to vote in future elections. The reason is, that the Legislature, in passing such a law, would have acted without authority; and as an unconstitutional law had no force in the beginning, it could acquire none by prescription. What was null in law could not be legitimated by practice. The negroes would be cruelly trifled with, to be sure; but that would not alter the legal aspect of the question. It would be the fault of the Legislature that exceeded its authority, and of the party that abetted it in violating the Constitution.

This reasoning, as applied to the unconstitutional act of a State Legislature, will be disputed by none. But the principle is precisely the same as that involved in the voting of the Southern negroes. The actual voting goes for nothing if it was not in pursuance of a valid law. Before deciding whether the privilege once exercised is irreversible, we have got to go behind the fact of voting and scrutinize the right.—The question cannot be so easily shifted as the Republican journals seem to think.—The voting of the Southern negroes against the protest of those who alone have the right to confer the privilege, goes for nothing, and cannot be permitted for a moment to cast a veil over the flaws in their original title. By the soundness of that original title the privilege must stand or fall, and all attempts at evasion must prove fruitless.

We are prepared to demonstrate, at any time when the demonstration shall be seasonable, the incompetency of Congress to regulate the elective franchise in a State; but we deem it unnecessary at present, since the very attempt to shift the ground of the negro claim betrays the distrust of the Republicans in the sufficiency of the law. It suffices to have shown that their contemplated change of base will not extricate them from their untenable position.

FORMATION OF COLORED MILITARY ORGANIZATIONS IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

(Special to the Richmond Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.

Some two weeks ago there appeared in the Chronicle an editorial, in which it was stated that there are nearly two full colored regiments in the District of Columbia, and that many members purchased their muskets from the Government at the close of the war, and suggesting that the time may come when they may be essential in preserving the peace of the District. The attention of the Administration being called to this statement, and, besides this, several communications having been sent to the Executive from various quarters of the South setting forth that armed organizations of colored persons were forming, and in some instances, threatening the lives of white citizens; that negro companies are drilling near the Chain bridge and other places in Virginia, for the available purpose of supporting Congress in the enforcement of the law to depose the President during impeachment, the matter was referred to the Secretary of War, ad interim, and the information respecting these organizations and authority under which raised requested. From official sources it is ascertained that no authority for organizing such companies has been given through the War Department, though two applications had been received which had been disapproved by Gen. Grant, who deemed it inexpedient to authorize militia organizations in the District of Columbia.

As these organizations have in some quarters excited serious apprehensions as to their real design, and as they are deemed unnecessary for the preservation of order or protection of civil authority, the President, it is understood, has directed Gen. Grant to take steps for disbanding and suppressing them. In a communication addressed to Secretary Stanton, dated Nov. 1st., 1866, referring to the report of Gen. Grant, October 27th., 1866, showing the entire force in the Department of Washington, which embraces the District of Columbia, Fairfax, and Alexandria counties, in Virginia, and the States of Maryland and Delaware, that there were but two thousand two hundred and twenty-four men, the President requested Mr. Stanton to take such measures as would insure safety to the Government, and thus discourage any attempt for its possession by insurgent or other illegal combinations. As the present posture of affairs is similar to that which then existed, the President now asks of the Secretary of War a report of the number of troops on duty in the Department of Washington, their distribution, and the names of the officers in command of each post.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make and others of equally high standing.

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost," some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy cheap goods, and I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

CONSERVATIVE TICKET FOR THE CONVENTION IN WAKE.

HON. DANIEL G. FOWLE,
REV. BENNET T. BLAKE,
PRIESTLY H. MANGUM,
JNO. A. McLEAN.

THE NORTHERN ELECTIONS.

The telegraphic accounts from the Northern elections are all that moderate and well founded calculations led us to expect. Whatever may be pleaded in support of the idea that side issues have been influential in these results, it cannot be overlooked or successfully controverted, that the re-action is really based upon the growing conviction of the Northern masses, that the government, if longer left in the hands of the Radicals, must be overthrown and crushed forever by the unbridled and violent revolutionary spirit of the Republican or Radical party.

The purpose of the Northern mind can be no longer dubious, that while it will demand freedom and justice to the colored race, it will not sustain the mad and fanatical attempts of the Radicals to establish negro governments in the Southern States, nor will it countenance the idea of negro supremacy in any portion of the Republic.

Beyond this, the reckless and extravagant expenditure of the public monies by the Radicals, entailing upon the people, and upon generations yet unborn, the most burdensome taxation, will of itself, when the people come coolly to consider it, prostrate any party connected with it. Moreover, if, as it is alleged, (and Mr. Greeley, of the New York Tribune, who, however objectionable his views, claims to be more honest and sincere than many of his coadjutors, and with good grounds, affirms it,) the amount of stealage now going on upon the Government approaches $500,000 a week, what must be the amount of the public debt and the extent of the taxation, if this state of things continues?

Let the people of North Carolina, therefore, rally to the Conservative cause, and by this means afford all the encouragement possible to the progress of there action.

THE TICKET COMPLETE.

The Conservative Executive Committee of this County met again on yesterday. The following letter from Mr. Whitaker was received by the Committee:

WAKE CO., NOV. 6, 1867.

To the Conservative Executive Committee:

GENTLEMEN:—Under the apprehension, on yesterday, that at this late period, you would not be able to supply the vacancy in our ticket occasioned by the resignation of my friend, J. A. Norris, Esq., I hastily consented at your solicitation to fill that vacancy.

More mature consideration convinces me that I could not, in justice to myself, serve you, and believing that you can supply the vacancy better for the interests of the Conservative cause, I beg that you will accept my resignation. Ardently devoted to the Union and to Constitutional liberty, I shall exert myself in every possible way to promote the cause, and to secure the triumphant election of the entire ticket.

Very respectfully,
N. J. WHITAKER.

The Committee agreed to receive Mr. Whitaker's resignation, and, on motion, the name of Dr. JNO. A. McLEAN, of Middle Creek District, was put in nomination, and he was unanimously chosen. Members of the Committee informed Dr. McLean of his nomination, and he accepted and consented to canvass.

Rev. B. T. Blake, also, on yesterday, signified his acceptance of the nomination, and consented to serve, if his friends would accept such services as he could render in the cause, consistent with his feeble health.

With his Honor, Judge Fowle, Rev. B. T. Blake, P. H. Mangum, Esq., and Dr. Jno. A. McLean, in the field, in behalf of the Conservative cause, what can hinder our success, but indifference and indolence on the part of the Conservatives, or the most outrageous and wicked attempts to tamper with the registration or election lists!

On, friends, to victory!

HOW THEY LOVE THE COLORED RACE!

At the elections in Kansas and Minnesota, on Tuesday, the question of allowing the negroes to vote was fairly and squarely submitted to the people, in the shape of an amendment to the Constitutions of those States. What is the result? Listen! colored men of North Carolina. The people of both those States, by large and decisive majorities, have refused the few negroes there the privilege of the ballot! In 1860, there were in Kansas about 91,000 whites and about 600 negroes. In Minnesota, the disproportion was, we are confident, equally as great, though we have not the statistics of population at hand.

In the only three Northern States in which this issue has been presented to the people,—three States which, at the last election, gave overwhelming Republican majorities,—it has thus been indignantly rejected and repudiated. And yet the negroes of the South are told that the Republican party are their best friends! Could hypocrisy go further? Actions speak louder than words, and we call the sober and serious reflection of the colored people of North Carolina to these significant indications. Nejoque, Ohio, Kansas and Minnesota tell a tale, which they will do wisely to heed!

VOTE AS YOU PLEASE!

We know of a number of colored men in this City, who are disposed to vote the Conservative ticket, and of several who have expressed their determination to do so. We know, too, that, if positive threats have not actually been uttered against such, in the event that they so vote, yet that expressions have been used on the streets and elsewhere, in relation to them, which imply menace. J. H. Harriss publicly proclaimed, in a speech in the Court House, some days since, that he would like "to have the photograph of every colored man who would vote with the Conservatives." He thus arrogates to himself the right to whip his brethren into the support of Radicalism.—A respectable colored man informed us, on yesterday, that the remark had been made in his presence, that the negro who voted with the Conservatives "ought to be hung,"—thereby implying the desire to see such an one hung, and, doubtless the purpose, but for the existence of law and fear of the consequences, to hang him.

The colored man who succumbs to such a state of things as this is more a serf than he ever was in the days of slavery. Has he been set free from the thraldom of the body, that his mind, his conscience, his free will and liberty to act for himself are to be fettered by the caprice and prejudice of the rabble, led on by white men, who have forfeited the respect of their own color? What a commentary upon the Radical theory of freedom it is, that, now that you are entrusted with the right of the ballot, you shall not exercise it, unless you vote as your would-be masters, white and black, tell you!

This course of intimidation, menace and actual violence succeeded, in Virginia, in driving hundreds of colored men either into absenting themselves from the polls or else voting against the deliberate and honest convictions of their judgments. Let our North Carolina colored people show that they are made of sterner and better metal. Let them vote as they please, unawed by a tyrannical dictation from any quarter. Let them remember that they will be protected in doing so, to the last extremity. The military are put here for the purpose of securing a fair election, and, certainly, in the light of the occurrences in Virginia, will take the proper precautions to effect that object.

A VOICE FROM THE NORTH.

We have received a letter from an intelligent and influential Northern source, from which we make the following extract:

"All agree that your only means of preventing further trouble from Hunnicutt and his ignorant black followers is through white immigration. If your landowners are really awake to the dangers hanging over your State from this man Hunnicutt, they should at once make every effort to bring in white labor and settlers. Every possible inducement ought to be extended, and if an industrious immigrant has only sufficient means to buy implements—do not let him pass West—but give him a piece of land at merely nominal price. I, for one, cannot believe that Hunnicutt nonsense can possibly rule white people anywhere on this continent. The sentiment of the North on this subject is too possible to be mistaken by any one endowed with common sense. The poor negro will, however, be the sufferer and the day is not far distant when the blacks will be down on Hunnicutt as the author of their deception and misery."

We take the above from the Richmond Whig. If the colored people of North Carolina should act so unwisely as to follow the example of the negroes of Virginia, no other remedy will be left us but to make the most urgent efforts to induce foreign immigration into this State. Indeed, such has already been the baleful influence of Radical teaching in this State, every man of property or influence feels the necessity of inaugurating this scheme at once. Why cannot we begin this movement at once? Intelligent and reliable Europeans among us, whose interests are fully identified with us, stand ready to help in the good work. Let the ball be started.

DR. POWELL.—In Gen. Canby's latest Registration order, among other grounds of challenge held sufficient to authorize rejection, we see the following: "Belongs to Fourth Ward." This, of course, is a specific reference to an individual case, which has all the earmarks of being that of the inevitable Dr. Powell. He "belongs to the Fourth Ward," Washington, D. C., but is a candidate for the Convention from Richmond county,—or for anything else, from a United States Senator down to a Constable.

CONVENTION IN GEORGIA.—The Savannah News, of the 3rd., received at this office on yesterday, says:

"We learn that it is generally conceded by the Radicals in this city, that the Convention scheme in this State has been defeated. It is believed that the number of votes polled does not exceed eighty thousand, whereas the number required to secure a Convention is ninety five thousand. We believe their apprehensions are well founded."

It seems to us that if Convention has been defeated in Georgia, the fact would have been communicated by telegraph. We shall probably know what the result is in a day or two.

EXCELLENT NEWS.—Maj. Gen. Howard, in his report as Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, just submitted, thinks that that delectable institution can be dispensed with after July next, provided the educational interests now under its care be transferred to some other agency. "Sound the loud timbrel."

The editor of a New Orleans French paper was recently "called out" after the manner of the chivalry on account of a typographical misplacement in an article in which the letter B (for blanc, white) occurred after the name of the colored delegate, and the letter C (for colored) after that of the white member elected to the Convention from the parish of St. James. A bullet for every blunder that appears in their columns would convert some of our contemporaries into miniature lead mines.—Chicago Post.

The declining health of Thad. Stevens, it is said, will prevent his participating in the proceedings of Congress this session.

LETTERS OF "ITINERANT."

WAYNESVILLE, Oct. 30th, 1867.

SANG, AND OTHER ROOTS.

The trade in Ginseng, and other medicinal roots, of which I wrote you over a year ago, continues to be the life of Western North Carolina. Ginseng, Snake-Root and a number of medicinal vegetable productions, are indigenous to the mountains of this State. They are eagerly sought after by the North; so much so that capitalists have been known to furnish our merchants out here, with ready money, for buying up these roots. The result is, in many neighborhoods the sale of these articles has been nearly their only source of income. They are dug from the mountains by the poor generally; Indians engaging considerably in the enterprise.

Ginseng is by far the most important of them all. This is a substitute, as I have said before, for tobacco, and is chiefly exported to China. But the Ginseng grows in an endless variety of shapes. In the main it is shaped like a carrot, but it varies from this to an almost endless variety, occasionally assuming almost a human shape. Whilst the Chinese use the ordinary roots for medicinal purposes, or as a substitute for tobacco, it is said that these human shaped pieces are objects of superstition among them, and are perhaps worshipped by them as gods.

Counting all the Counties that lie in the vicinity of the Blue Ridge, for say fifty miles to the east, and from that line out to the borders of the State on the west, the income from these roots would, I presume, hardly fall short of a quarter of a million of dollars a year. This carries comfort to many a mountain home of the poor and destitute, and is nearly their only means of raising money these roots being nearly the only marketable thing they have.

Gen. Polk has a son now living and in business at Asheville, Capt. Polk; and the widow of the lamented Bishop has recently been on a visit to her son. He is merchandizing. His firm is Polk & Summey.

"ALL NOT GOLD THAT GLITTERS."

At Salisbury, I observed a very plain looking man enter the office. He was a small figure, and wore a suit of brown homespun, much worn, a slouch hat that hung loosely at the ears, and very cheap shoes. I was struck with his appearance,—and more than surprised to see him "register." He wrote a very business like hand. Next morning he was on the train for Morganton, and we became stage travellers together to Asheville. I became more and more impressed with his polished manners, learning and talent, but did not learn, till just before we parted, that he was Colonel Dabney, of Stuart's staff.

He was in Europe at the surrender, and, the story is, only returned to his home in Virginia to find himself very poor.

"NEW SORGHUM BOILER."

A new apparatus for making "Sorghum," is penetrating this western country. There is a vast difference between the eastern counties and the western, relative to the Sorghum culture. It has been comparatively abandoned in the east, but is abundantly grown in the west. Let us see who are the wiser.

It has been demonstrated at the North and West, that an acre of the right kind of Sorghum will yield 200 gallons molasses and 1,000 pounds of sugar. The interest in the product has increased until there is a monthly journal published in Cincinnati devoted to Sorghum, "The Sorghum Journal." It gives the proceedings of the Sorghum Conventions, and the results of labor with the cane.

A new Evaporator is in use. It consists of a copper pan, twelve feet long, say four feet wide. This pan has a series of bars, reaching nearly across the inside of the pan at the bottom, so arranged as to allow the liquid to run up and down these ribs. It enters at one end of the pan, runs up one rib and down another, until it reaches the opposite end, when it leaves the pan not only syrup, but as clear as white honey, free from the peculiar Sorghum flavor, thick and heavy, and by far the best molasses I ever knew made from this cane. The new pan (Corse's) is in use near Asheville.

"THE FRENCH BROAD."

The traveller has hardly cleared the town of Asheville before he finds himself upon the far famed French Broad River. It is a kind of reference point for towns, neighborhoods and railroads. Everything in this region is such or such a number of miles from the French Broad.

The proposed railroad from Morganton westward would follow this river a long distance on its way to Greeneville, Tennessee, and well it may, for it runs through an exceedingly rich valley.

"JAMES M. SMITH."

The first white child known to have been born in N. C. west of the Blue Ridge, was born a few miles west of Asheville. His name heads this paragraph, and he was the son of an early settler, named Daniel Smith, the famous "Indian fighter." Smith, jr, built a house with port holes, which is still standing. The old man was noted for his extensive possessions. He lived near the French Broad, and died not too soon to see a large white population follow the wake he had led to an Indian territory.

"SMART WELCH."

I see here at Waynesville the first colored person born West of the Blue Ridge, Smart Welsh by name, now an old man, and greatly respected by the people of this country for his upright deportment. He is said to have be come a "red string" one morning, but, like the man who passed through five States in one day, old Smart became not a "red string" before sunset. He represents that after getting in the ring, he looked around, but not seeing any white faces he fixed, he bolted, and has never seen the lantern since.

"WAYNESVILLE."

The American people are noted for their free use of the superlative degree. We are ever seeing the finest horse, the hottest day, the prettiest woman, and the finest locality. But I must place this town on record as excelling all the towns within my knowledge, in some respects—one at least. It has been found by measurement to be 2 700 feet above the sea, and is claimed to be the most elevated site of any town in the United States—Districts included.

Waynesville is certainly behind no place in the old fashioned kind of hospitality. It makes one think of the good old time before the days of Railroading.

Waynesville is encircled with a belt of mountains that stretches literally around the place, excepting gaps that afford outlets for the traveler. One of these peaks rises to the height of six thousand feet.

Near the village is one of the finest sulphur springs in the land. In addition to its medicinal property, it possesses the additional charm of being as cold as ice water.

It is a singular fact that the temperature here at W. is so cold that no ice is put up for summer use, for the reason that buttermilk and water are cold enough in the summer without ice. Blankets are used in sleeping all the year.

Whilst this is so, the mountain slopes present the singular feature of having belts of warm currents never visited by frost. In this it resembles the great Mexican valley, where a man on horseback can get a lemon fresh from a tree, and in the same day ride to a locality where the icicle can be gotten for the lemonade.

At this elevation, no wonder Waynesville should be healthy. At a Sabbath school I attended yesterday, I was interested in looking over the school in search of a delicate looking boy, but I did not find one.

This county takes its name from Treasurer Haywood, of Raleigh, and the county seat from General Wayne, of the Revolution of '76.

Still heading for the West,
ITINERANT.

For the Sentinel.

A CARD—TO THE VOTERS OF CHATHAM COUNTY.

I desire that my old friends should distinctly understand that William T. Gunter, the present candidate of the mongrel Radical party for the Constitutional Convention, is not William S. Gunter, the former Clerk of the Superior Court of Law for Chatham.

Please make the distinction, and recollect that William S. Gunter does not, never has, and never will, belong to that party.

W. S. GUNTER.

CHATHAM CO., N. C., Nov. 5th, 1867.

THE AWAKENING.

Washington Irving, in his ingenious story of Rip Van Winkle, tells of the amazement of an honest Dutchman who went to sleep under King George, and awoke after the close of the revolutionary war. We incline to the opinion that the astonishment of the veteran somnambulic Knickerbocker at what he saw after his magical snooze of many years, whilst it was undoubtedly as great, was scarcely so unpleasant as that of the masses of the Northern people at the spectacle which they beheld after the extraordinary slumber in which they have been steeped for the last six years. When they were last conscious they beheld a government under which there was the most perfect liberty compatible with the nature of man. They lived in a Union in which all the States were equal, and all the Anglo-American race were free. They looked upon a constellation in which every star shone with an equal luster. Now what do they see? A government in which the people are no longer free, and under which a part of the States are placed under a despotism far worse than that of Austria. They find an enormous public debt weighing down the energies of the nation. They find a Union which is no longer a Union, but in which a portion of the States are constituted a negro despotism. They find in part of the States negro supremacy, and in the rest they encounter an attempt to establish negro equality. They look upon a national constitution, the light of which is blurred and dimmed, and from which ten States have been struck. Such is the astounding spectacle that meets the view of the awakened slumberers. No wonder that they are indignant and feel themselves outraged. No wonder that they have determined that republican liberty shall be restored, white supremacy maintained, "the Constitution once more unrolled in the land," and the Union re established as it was.

We have great faith in the American people. We believe they are a liberty-loving race, and have ever held that the time would come when they would throw off the shackles with which designing and crafty demagogues have bound them in the hours of their unaccountable slumber. That time, thank God, has come. Like a giant bursting the bonds with which pigmies would enslave him, the American people are breaking the chains with which ambitious partisan leaders would bind them to the car of Radicalism.—Louisville Courier.

SOUTHERN REPRESENTATION—POMPEY AND CÆSAR IN THE ASCENDANT.—Who is there but feels proud of the history of the country and of the array of intellect in its annals, when he runs over the names of the men that in the past represented only the South in the councils of the nation—Jefferson, Madison, Randolph, Lowndes, Pinckney, Hayne, Calhoun? One might run the list to noble length, and mention only men who had earned world-wide fame and were worthy of it. But if one indulges these remembrances he is likely to be called a Rip Van Winkle, it is such an age of progress, and we have so changed all that. What are the glorious names that are likely to be associated with Southern representation in the future? Quashy, Cuffee and Sambo! Elleck Johnson, Pompey Smith, Cæsar Jones and Ciceroes, with every possible addition, are to be the future Senators, speakers and eloquent orators from States whose annals are splendid with the names of the founders of freedom. No wonder the Republican party vaunts its achievements, when it can show results as great as this!—Herald.

The New York Herald concludes its comments on Thad. Stevens' latest manifesto as follows:

"Poor old Stevens! How feeble he must have become, when he can descend to drivel through all this trashy argument of constitutional metaphysics, as if he were only another Sumner! How much more worthy of respect was his position when he boldly declared that all this matter was outside the Constitution and must stand on a broader basis than that instrument, or could not stand at all! He could only have gone one step further in arrant nonsense than his constitutional argument, and this he does in launching into a rhapsody over the glories of a great nigger republic of future ages that is to grow up in the West Indies. Alas for this poor contemptible white race! What will become of it then?"

REV. DR. BECKWITH.—We learn by private letter from New York, says the New Orleans Picayune, that this distinguished divine has preached recently in that city on several occasions. The congregation of Grace Church, on Broadway, have offered Mr. Beckwith a salary of $15,000 per annum and the parsonage, if he would accept a call to that Church. We understand, however, that he has declined to entertain the flattering proposition. It is believed in New York that he will finally accept the Bishopric of Georgia, which is still kept open for him.

"DIDN'T LIKE 'EM."—A. Brown, (negro) made a "stark" at the Republican meeting on Saturday night, in which he alluded to the speeches of Gov. Vance, Col. Johnson and Judge Osborne in the following terms: "I didn't like dem speeches up on de square de oder day. Dey put de nigger down to de very lowest notch. Dey talk about fighting. If any fighting has to be done de nigger can do some fighting too." In the course of the meeting the chair made some explanation in regard to parliamentary usages, when A. Brown arose and thus delivered himself:—"Dese niggers don't know what parliamentary usage is. I don't like 'em, myself, and I've always been opposed to 'em."—Char. News.

Brownlow threatens the torch and turpentine—a general burning, robbery and murder—to those who oppose Radicalism in Tennessee, and Hunnicutt recommends the negroes of Virginia to apply the torch to the property of those who displease them, and threatens general assassination of the whites at the hands of the blacks if his own precious person is injured. This is Radical Reconstruction upon the equal rights and humanitarian system!—Boston Post.

John Hardy, editor of the State Sentinel, a Radical paper published in Montgomery, Ala., has been confined to a lunatic asylum.

KILLING FROST.—On yesterday morning, we had the first killing frost for the season. We think the "oldest inhabitant" will say that this is an unusually late period for the first killing frost.

A LARGE AND ENTHUSIASTIC Convention of the Conservatives of the County of Wayne was held in Goldsboro, on Saturday last. Rev. A. J. Finlayson and E. A. Wright, Esq., were nominated as the candidates for the Convention.—an excellent ticket.

Dr. Mudd, the Lincoln conspirator, who is a prisoner in the Dry Tortugas, faithfully attended the sick during the yellow fever epidemic there, all the other surgeons of the prostrated. He did not lose a case, and in consideration of his services, efforts are being made to obtain a pardon for him.

GREAT CONSERVATIVE RATIFICATION MEETING!

The Conservative Ratification meeting at Tucker Hall, last night, was one of the most enthusiastic and imposing demonstrations ever made in this City. The large Hall was filled to overflowing with a vast crowd, who had assembled heartily to endorse the admirable ticket presented by the Conservatives for the suffrages of the people of Wake, and to exchange congratulations over the glorious indications from the North, that the tide of re-action has fully set in, and that the Constitutional Union of our fathers is to be restored.

On motion, Reuben Fleming, Esq., was called to the Chair, Messrs. Jeptha Horton and H. P. Tucker were appointed Vice-Presidents, and J. B. Neathery, Secretary.

Maj. J. P. H. Russ, by request, explained the objects of the meeting, when loud and vociferous calls brought the Hon. D. G. Fowle to the stage. His presence was greeted with tumultuous applause.

He then proceeded to deliver, what we can conscientiously pronounce, one of the most excellent and effective speeches to which we have listened for many a day. It was received with every expression of satisfaction by the immense audience. We were pleased to see so many of the colored people present, and glad to observe that, with some exceptions, they behaved well, listened attentively, and appeared to be impressed with what they heard. As for the exhibitions of disorder and of a disposition to be noisy and impolite, on the part of a few,—conduct to which they were doubtless instigated,—the respectable and decent men among them owe it to themselves to rebuke such a spirit.

Judge Fowle spoke for at least two hours, and there was no Conservative present but felt proud of him as his standard-bearer. As we make up our hasty sketch, at a late hour of the night, and design alluding to this fine effort more at length hereafter, we will not attempt to go into further details, now.

After Judge F. had concluded, there were loud calls for the Rev. Bennett T. Blake, who came forward, and, in a few neat and pertinent remarks, accepted the nomination.

Maj. Russ then announced the acceptance of the other two nominees, when, on motion, the entire ticket was enthusiastically ratified, amid cheers and shouts of approbation.

On, Conservatives, to success!

SOMETHING GOOD OUT OF NAZARETH.—Senator Patterson, of New Hampshire, is accounted a radical republican; but he seems to be one who is not to be carried away by all the fanatic notions of Sumner, Stevens, Phillips and Greeley. Senator Patterson, on the question of suffrage, in the course of a late speech at Boston, said, "That the obstinacy of the rebels forced us to give the ballot to the negroes, as the only alternative to keeping a standing army in every Southern town. But, while a strong advocate of impartial suffrage, he said he did not favor manhood suffrage except through manhood education. It might do in New England, but it would not do for California, with her ninety thousand Chinamen. He would not have suffrage exercised by Indians or Aztecs, and he believed that the man who is to help govern a nation needs intelligence in order to properly discharge the duties vested in his suffrage." Mr. Patterson thought the subject could be very wisely left to the several States, and we think so too. Light is beginning to break into the republican camp. Who speaks next?—N. Y. Herald.

DISMAL SWAMP CANAL.—The first, and a strong effort towards putting the Dismal Swamp canal in a condition for naval service was made yesterday, by launching a dredge, referred to in another article. There is no doubt about the fact, that—if put, as we presume it will be, in fine order—this canal will greatly aid the commercial interests of Norfolk.

Prior to this, the water was drawn off, during the busiest season of the year, in order to dig it out by hand, or an old horse dredge; which delayed our receipts of wheat, corn, cotton, tar, pitch, rosin, peanuts, &c., from the "Old North State," through this great water route to Norfolk, and through this port to the outside world—at the proper seasons.

We hope that the new regime will initiate a new business era, and give an impetus to the Dismal Swamp canal, commensurate with its value to Virginia and North Carolina, and authorize the introduction of other dredges, by which to keep it ever in first class order.—Norfolk Journal.

The London Times is in favor of increasing the salary of the British Minister to this country, on the ground that he will have, for "diplomatic purposes," to entertain largely, and that "money will go twice as far in England as in America."

NEW LABOR-SAVING PUMP, OR THE PATENT IMPROVED METHOD OF SINKING WELLS.

For Safety, Convenience and Economy, it has no equal. An inexhaustible supply of water is furnished wherever wanted, either in Yard, Stable, Kitchen or Dining Room.

DAILY SENTINEL.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1867.

THE SONG OF JOY.

"Because Thou has been my help, therefore in the shadow of Thy wings will I rejoice."

Dark was the night, and the way was long;
I had no heart for the pilgrim song;
Lone the journey o'er moor and wold,
And I was a timid, startled child,
But the lights of my home threw a welcome out,
And I heard the hopeful and merry shout,
And I turned my heart to my tender guide,—
O, nevermore will I leave thy side.
Because Thou hast been my help.

Mournfully sitting beneath the trees,
Hearing the Autumn's sad voiced breeze,
Watching the faded leaves that fell,
"This," said I, "is my summer's knell,—
It is dying away, and the winter's cold
Shall freeze the life that I fain would hold."
But of to my grateful heart is sent
The Indian summer of glad content,
Because Thou hast been my help.

Trembling I stood on the tide-washed shore,
Gazing the desolate waters o'er,
While one was battling with wind and wave,
So near to life is the silent grave.
The current is strong, and the ocean deep,
And the weary swimmer will fall asleep.
Not so—he is rescued and brought to land,
For Thou hast stood on the shelving sand,
Because Thou hast been my help.

And evermore I will sing this hymn,
In the summer bright and the winter dim,
In joy or sorrow, in gain or loss,
Wearing the crown, or beneath the cross:
"spread thy shadow above me still,
Gladly I live but to do Thy will;
Nor shall a doubt of my safety come
Till I rest me safe in my Father's home,
Because Thou hast been my help."

How She Trapped Him.—A little incident occurred in town a day or two since, which shows how dangerous it is for a husband to provoke the jealousy of a shrewd, loving and determined wife.

It seems that a young married mechanic, whose honeymoon had sometime since waned, has recently been in the habit of leaving the home of his connubial bliss occasionally in the evening to seek enjoyment elsewhere. He followed this up for a considerable period, until at last his apologies for his late return at night were not entirely satisfactory to his devoted wife.

Ascertaining by some means one day that her husband had made an appointment with another mechanic to go on a ride in the evening, she took a young woman into her confidence, and in her company resolved to test the faithfulness of her husband. The "gay and festive" young men hired a team at a livery stable, and departed on their evening excursion. The two women, learning that the destination of the truant husband and his companion was somewhere beyond the river at Amoskeag Falls, stationed themselves at the west end of the bridge and awaited their arrival. They soon drove up, when the mischievous wife stopped their carriage, and, in a free and easy style, inquired the way to Amoskeag village. The jolly mechanics were delighted with the social disposition of the pretty girls, and telling them they were going to Amoskeag themselves, invited them to jump into their carriage. In they jumped, nothing loth, the husband taking his wife into his lap, while her companion was as safely esconced in the lap of his chum. On they drove in the most delightful fellowship far beyond Amoskeag, the husband in the meantime caressing the unknown female in his lap in the most endearing manner, not dreaming it was his wife, while his chum was no less attentive to the young woman he held in his arms. At last the wife proposed that all the party return to the city.

The gents readily assented, in the full belief that their new found female companions would be more charming than any others in prospect. On coming upon Elm street the wife threw off her disguise and asked her lord how he liked his new acquaintances. He blushed, stammered, and owned his folly. Will she forgive him? Of course she will.—Manchester, N. H., Democrat.

"What would you be, dearest," said Walter to his sweetheart, "if I were to press the seal of love upon those sealing-wax lips?" She replied, "I should be stationery."

A modern Amazon, on her way to a convention, asked for a seat in a crowded car. An old gentleman with keen eyes inquired: "Be you one of the woman rights?" "I be!" answered the undaunted heroine.—"Do you believe that a woman has the same rights as a man?" "I do!" (emphatically.) "Well then, stand up and enjoy 'em like a man!"

Two rough soldiers, with pipes in their mouths, and a thicket of hair all over their faces, meet, and one complains to the other, "I tell yer what, Bill, I don't like these mustachers. They do lop up such a lot of grog."

Seventh. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election as a delegate in the Convention, shall serve as a Judge of the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the sheriff of the County is empowered to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering, or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the 21st of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD
AND
NORTH CAROLINA
GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,
From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN BOATS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $250,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

For information about shipping, apply to Messrs.
WHEDBEE & DICKINSON, Baltimore,
COCHRAN, RUSSELL & CO., Philadelphia,
BAKER BROTHERS, Boston,

THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO
SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R!

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for, her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NOTICE!

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAG RATIONS.

Until the invention of the Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

Send for a Circular.
